

Land's Gate Real Estate Group

Co-op Agent Registration & Policy For Homes Offered by The Building Company

An agent may register a client prior to a first visit by filling out the information below and submitting the registration form to Land's Gate. However, all agents are expected to accompany their customer/client to the initial showing and attend all "information gathering" appointments. If the agent is not available to accompany the client during the first showing, they are expected to notify Land's Gate.
